

KCMC UNIVERSITY

SHORT COURSE ANNOUNCEMENT

REDISTRIBUTION OF PRESSURE IN THE DIABETIC FOOT: PRINCIPLES AND CLINICAL APPLICATIONS

OBJECTIVE

This course aims to enhance participants' understanding and application of pathoanatomy, prevention, assessment, and management principles related to diabetic foot complications. Emphasis will be placed on evidence-based use of foot orthoses and pressure redistribution strategies guided by established clinical and biomechanical principles.

ELIGIBILITY

Prosthetist, Orthotist, Medical Doctor, Medical Specialist, Physiotherapist, Clinical Officer, Laboratory Scientist /Technologist and Nurses.

Expert Facilitators: The sessions will be facilitated by renowned professionals in foot ulcer management, experienced in applying conservative management guidelines in clinical practice.

10 CPD TO BE AWARDED

Course Dates: 2nd to 4th February 2026
Mode of Delivery: Online (via Zoom)
Course Duration: Three full days
Fee: TZS 200,000/=

Bank Detail: National Bank of Commerce (NBC)
Account No. 017101001339

Account name: KCMC University
Contact: +255758095080 or by email
eunice.kombe@kcmcu.ac.tz

Registration is open until 31st January 2026

Register online via:

<https://forms.gle/L7kAYzBFTHVmN9Zs5>

